

Seminar conclusion

- Organized vehicle crime can only be lacked successfully if information about vehicle crime and criminal organizations is exchanged between countries

Seminar conclusion

- The police can play an important role in giving the general public more knowledge about prevention of vehicle theft and other forms of criminality

Seminar conclusion

- Public and private organizations should co-operate in each country. IAATI members should do what is within they reach to achieve formal or informational public-private partnership. The main communication model is as follows
 - National : public x private
 - International: public x public and private x private

Seminar conclusion

- The combination of technical and administrative investigation on vehicles is very effective to prevent the legalization of stolen vehicles

Addition to speech of Ben Jillet

Share successful project and copy them !!!